

Company News

A message from Ron Lewkowitz, RSL's President:

It is a great pleasure to end 2016 with the strongest sales growth in over 10 years! Champion and RSL have reached this goal due to a full team effort. RSL could not be as successful without Champion's consistent product, quality and steady supply. Champion could not be as successful without RSL generating the sales from loyal customers that appreciate our friendly service, industry-best lifetime warranty, and quick lead times. All of these impressive accomplishments are achieved because of our dedicated management teams, hard-working production teams, and office staff. Our company's success has allowed us to provide tremendous medical, dental, and life insurance, quarterly and holiday bonuses, and 401K retirement plan with increasing contributions from the company. We are successful now and prospects for a strong 2017 are even better. Congratulations and thank you for being a part of our team!

Congratulations are in order for our Fernwood Avenue crew, who at the time of printing, have set a 10 year high going over 513 days without a recordable safety incident! The previous 10 year high was 463 days set back in 2010. Great work to all involved and let's keep it going strong into 2017!

Quality Awards

There are many outstanding employees at Champion and RSL that deserve our praise and thanks. In this newsletter we would like to recognize the following individuals and give them a $50 gift card as a token of our appreciation.

Aaron McMahon

Aaron started working for Champion on 11/20/2000 as a Material Handler. His dependability and eagerness to learn quickly earned him a promotion in 2002 to Mold Setter. During his time as a Mold Setter Aaron worked intensely to learn all aspects of repairing and troubleshooting the presses as well as learning how to process. His hard work, determination and knowledge was noticed and he was promoted to Foreman in Sept of 2009. Aaron is a true asset to the company and is a team player who is well respected by his co-workers and management.

Maurice Haskins

Maurice started with RSL on 08/08/13 as a temporary employee. After exhibiting a great outlook and enthusiasm to learn, he was hired full time in March 2013. His stellar attendance, dedication and commitment earned him a promotion to Doorglass Assembly Line Leader. Maurice takes his leadership role seriously and strives for quality. He is a team player who is well liked and respected by his co-workers. Maurice can always be counted on to lend a helping hand with a smile.

Goal Setting

- Your goals must be your own. Don't allow other people, commercials, or TV to influence your ideas of success. Decide now to create your own definition of success and stop worrying about what others think.
- Your goals must be meaningful. Make goals that motivate you enough to sacrifice real time and effort to accomplish.
- Your goals must be specific and measurable. Accurately define what you want. Vague generalizations aren't good enough. Be specific. A goal without a number is just a slogan.
- Your goals must be flexible. A flexible plan allows you the freedom to change course if a better strategy or outcome becomes apparent.
- Your goals must be realistic. Realistic goals get better results. Many people are unrealistic about how long it will take to achieve their goals and then they get frustrated and give up too soon.
- Your goals need to be supported. Let those who are really important to you know what you plan to accomplish. They will be there to support and congratulate you when you need encouragement or point out when you have gone astray. Announcing your goal also may add incentives so that you don't give up. Good luck!!
